

The Client Committee's job is:

Representing the clients

People tell the Client Committee what they want at.....

Tell management what clients want

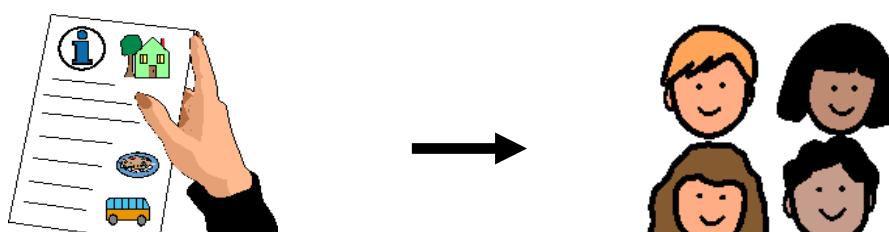

Client Committee tells management what the people want

Fundraising

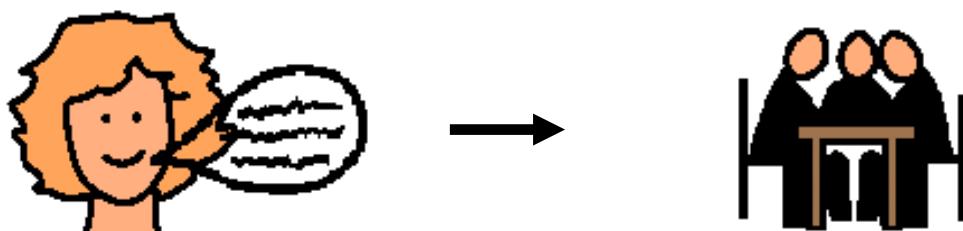

The Client Committee raises money for and other events

Give information to other clients

Client Committee makes sure people get given information about what is happening at

To represent at forums and meetings

Members of the Client Committee go to meetings and forums to learn what is happening in the community