160 NDIS meetings in 50 days is hard to do

The VALID self-advocacy team has had a very busy couple of months delivering Easy Read information on the NDIS transition from Victorian Government group homes to non government service providers. Team members have attended 160 meetings in 50 days, providing information, answering questions and gathering feedback on the issues raised by residents to give to government.

VALID supports Labor's commitment to a Royal Commission into the abuse and neglect of people with disability

Every single week VALID hears stories of abuse, bullying and violence - this happens in disability services, schools and out community - it must stop.

Moe group hits the airwaves

Moe Peer Action Group decided they wanted to have their own radio show, and so they made a plan. The plan started with the big idea and then they worked out what they needed to do to make it come to life.

Joint Statement on the NDIA's Specialist Disability Accommodation Provider and Investor Brief

VALID, along with 22 other organisations have released a statement in response to a document delivered by the National Disability Insurance Agency (NDIA) about Specialist Disability Accommodation (SDA).

We are happy with parts of the document, but we have some concerns about other messages which impact on choice and control for people with disability on where they live and who they live with.
