

A photograph showing four hands from different people reaching towards the center, each holding a piece of a puzzle. The puzzle pieces are white, blue, green, and red. The hands are positioned around the pieces, suggesting they are about to be put together.

The Succession Planning Puzzle

A course for family members of people with disability

It is the question all parents have – who is going to care for my family member when I'm not around?

VALID's Succession Planning is an online course for family members of people with disability. It includes four core sessions:

- To assist you to 'map' out what things you need to put in place for the future
- Information on options for financial, accommodation and legal issues
- Setting up your family member to receive 'quality of care', e.g. Circle of Support
- Optional sessions can be arranged with guest speakers on Wills, trusts, Attorneys, Guardianship & Admin and what accommodation support is funded by the NDIS

Register your Interest

If you are interested in doing this course please fill this form in and take a photo or scan of it and return to Maree E: maree@valid.org.au M: 0409 965 264

Name: _____ Mobile: _____

Address (to send booklets): _____ Postcode: _____

Email: _____

More Information contact:

Christine Scott E: christine@valid.org.au

VALID