The Network is supported by VALID

VALID supports people with intellectual disability to speak up (that is, self-advocate) about their choices, needs and issues.

VALID also provides support to services to put into place programs and processes that empower people with disability.

Aims of the Network

- To speak up about our rights

- Assist members to develop & use their advocacy skills

- Assist members to learn new things and gain information

- To meet new people and socialise with participants from other services

- Provide a Network that Government, Community Organizations and other key bodies can talk to about participant issues

Who can Join?

The Eastern Network is open to people with intellectual disability who live in the Eastern Metropolitan area.
